Centennial Workshop Produces Many Ideas

The need for involvement of more individuals in community undertakings to ensure Centennial success was stressed heavily at last Thursday's Centennial Workshop in Drayton Valley.

Centennial officers, Vic Chapman and Bud Salloum of Edmonton conducted the meeting and pointed out many projects that can be undertaken as a part of Canada's 100th birthday celebration. Unfortunately, the meeting conflicted with the NHL playoff final, and suffered attendancewise

Those in attendance discussed a wide variety of Centennial events and appeared to come away from the workshop enthused with the object of making the celebration in Drayton Valley and area a resounding success.

Mrs. C.R. Wood, M.L.A. for Stony Plain, commented on Drayton Valley's good fortune in having the Centennial Caravan stop here for three days in July of 1967. Mrs. Wood, and Mayor Howard Pickup, who also spoke briefly, both emphasized the need for all segments of society to enter wholeheartedly in the spirit of Centennial to guarantee success.

The Centennial Caravan, which will arrive here on July 2, 1967 and stay until July 4th, consists of eight mammoth trailers which tell Canada's story from prehistory to modern times. It was pointed out that this display is not of a musty museum type, but set up in order to create even the heat and humidity of jungle-like terrain of the age of reptiles or the wintery cold of the Ice Age.

According to descriptive material available, a visit to the caravan will be a Centennial must for people of all ages in the area.

Besides the caravan displays, a large stage is also available where local productions can be presented during the caravan's stay in town.

The possibilities of a tremendous three-day festivity were immediately apparent to those attending the meeting and plans are underway to make the most of the caravan's visit.

Another Centennial event which could have a tremendous impact on this area is the Voyageur Canoe Pageant in which canoes from across Canada will follow the water route from Rocky Mountain House to Montreal.

The event is expected to attract press coverage from all across the North American Continent.

FOCUS

New This Week

As a Centennial feature, The Western Review has purchased from the Toronto Telegram News Service a series of articles entitled Canada's Century. The series, to be run on a weekly basis, is intended to provide background information on Canada's 100 years since Confederation.

Also new this week are the features, "Water Skiing with Clint Ward" and "The Arnold Palmer Golf Method" sponsored respectively by Donald McKenzie Men's Wear and Thompson's Sporting Goods.

These two features with tips on the popular summer sports will run through the summer.

Tomahawk Old Timers Feted

Many fond memories were recalled Sunday, May 8th at Tomahawk when a supper and reunion of district old timers was held by the F.W.U.A. local.

Friends and neighbors gathered at the community hall in the late afternoon and over 90 people renewed old acquaintances. Among those present was Mr. Paul Esquilat who travelled from Kimberly, B.C. to attend the function.

Following a delicious buffet supper the ladies of the F.W.U.A. presented a program of entertainment with Mrs. Marion Jouan acting as mistress of ceremonies.

A sing song, fashion show and dancing were enjoyed. Highlights of the evening that brought back memories for many of those present were a history of Tomahawk written by Frank Hallett and read by his grandson Edwin Hallett and the story of the Brown family's early adventures read by Terry Medd.

History of the village of Tomahawk goes back to 1904 when Dan MacKay and Frank Jenkins of Ontario, J. Kelly of New Brunswick and Lewis Shaw and Martin McDonald of Wisconsin took up homesteads in the district.

In 1906 five Jenkins brothers and five Hallett brothers moved to the district. The community took its name from the home town of Mr. Shaw and Mr. McDonald in Wisconsin.

About 1908 a raging forest fire destroyed a large tract of timber stretching from Tomahawk to Drayton Valley and the Pembina River. This story and many others were recalled by the pioneer members of the community who enjoyed the get-together and the hope was expressed that the occasion might become an annual event.

It is expected that the Flower Show prize list will be printed in the next issue of The Western Review. It is suggested that you clip it and keep it for future reference, The Flower Show will be held on the third Wednesday in August.

It was a shock to see the "For Sale" sign on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson's house and to learn that they plan to leave us.

Mr. Tom Ross and son, Neil were patients in Drayton Valley Hospital last week.

A wedding of interest here was solemnized in High River on Saturday when Miss Marie Kozak became the bride of Mr. Donald Chipchase. Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chipchase and grew up in this district. The newly weds will live in High River.

On Saturday and Monday the Women's Institute's Centennial Project, a planting of trees at the old cemetery, swung into high gear. The Institute wishes to thank Dick Baker, Bob Mayhew, Mr. Regnier, Mr. McCullough, Leslie Oscar, Mr. Tom McManus, his staff and students fo valuable help.

The 4-H Beef Club raffled their calf on Friday. Mrs. Doluik of Violet Grove was the lucky winner.

This autumn's grade one class was being registered at the Elementary School at the beginning of this week. It would appear that there will be no shortage of pupils in this category.

NEW TEACHERS AT HIGH SCHOOL

The staff at Frank Maddock High School has been enlarged with the recent addition of two educators.

Mr. Madsen, who comes from Spirit River, has attended the University of Alberta for four years. He will teach French 10 and Social Studies 10 for the remainder of the year, and will continue to teach in Drayton Valley next year.

The other addition to the staff is Mrs. Braybrook who has returned to Drayton Valley to teach grade 9 English.

Swimming Pool Opening Sunday

The Drayton Valley Swimming Pool is scheduled to open Sunday, May 15th at 1:00 p.m. Pool preparations are progressing very favorably to date and barring some unforseen difficulty we should be able to meet this schedule. In the event, however, that we are not ready to open the doors on Sunday, the opening will be held at the earliest possible opportunity afterward.

The pool is in very good condition, considering the hazards of the past winter and a minimum of repair has been required to put it in shape for the summer's operation.

This year's pool schedule will follow closely that of 1965. The pool will open daily at 1:00 p.m. and remain open until 5:30 p.m. The Neptune Club, our competitive swim team, will use the facility from 5:45 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. There will be public swimming again from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and the final hour each day up to closing time at 10:00 p.m. will be allotted to adult swimming. This schedule will be in force during May and June. During the months of July and August the pool will be open for fifteen hours a day as in past years. The complete schedule will appear in a later edition of The Western Review.

All pool staff have been hired for the coming season. Ken Mickey will again serve as chief lifeguard. Sharon Phelan will be back as will Marianne Kaarsemaker. Jane McGee and Ron Pajak will complete the lifeguard staff. Mrs. Rubyrose Vig will again serve as cashier and Ray McGuigan will take care of the janitorial duties.

It is expected that an interested group will again form the "Early Bird Swim Club" and use the pool from 6:30 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday.

Swimming instruction will be available for all age groups again this season. The swimming instruction program will be carried out along the same lines as last season. For further information concerning this or any other phase of pool activity call 542-3327 and ask for the recreation director or drop in at the Recreation Office.

Centennial Workshop

25, 1967 the canoes will arrive at Drayton Valley during the late afternoon and it was suggested that riverside festivities be planned to tie in with the canoe pageant.

Although the pageant is a race with prize money, it is also intended to tell the story of Canada's explorers and fur traders along the 33,000 mile course. It is being suggested that sprint races by the canoes be held at the various stopping points with prizes offered.

It was also suggested that the occasion of the canoes stopping overnight could be used as a major part of a water festival complete with barbeques, dances, Indian villages and dances, and the usual activities of a summer fair.

Following the actual meeting and the showing of a Centennial film those present broke up into small discussion groups and came up with several more suggestions for observing the Centennial. Among these were suggestions for tree planting, collecting museum artifacts, setting up an Indian village, a year-round clean-up and town decoration, Confederation dress and flower beds and drama presentations to mention a few.

Judging from the enthusiasm displayed by those taking part in Thursday's workshop the possibility exists for a tremendous round of events in our area that could make the Centennial year an occasion long-remembered.

Hospital Auxiliary Reports Busy Year

This past year, 1964 to 1965 has proved to be a busy one for the eighteen members of the Drayton Valley Hospital Auxiliary. A total of $1,258 has been spent for improvements and benefits for the hospital and patients, the money being raised by various projects such as bake sales, rummage sales, annual tag day and the sale of knitted baby sets which are on display in the hospital.

The ladies have replaced window drapes, bought pictures for wards and solarium; a planter for the solarium; blankets; fireproof Christmas tree; an electric clock, knife and fans; a croupette; and a refrigerator for the nurses station. The group also purchased comic books monthly for the children's ward and provided favors for the patients' trays on special occasions such as Christmas and Easter. A gift was also given to the hospital staff at Christmas.

A canteen is opened three times a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday for an hour in the afternoon, the time being voluntarily donated.

The Red Cross Blood Donor clinic team were served dinner in the dining room of the hospital with the food being provided and served by members of the auxiliary.

The auxiliary sponsored the project of buying a $951.00 incubator, $470 of which the ladies have paid the balance of which has been paid by other organizations.

A thank you is sent to the ladies of the Lutheran Church for serving garments for the children's ward.

Farmers produced more rape seed in 1965 than ever before. Aover-all world production was 25 percent more than in 1964 at just under five million short tons.

District Youths at Seminar

Three young people from this area will join young Albertans from 189 communities throughout the province in conferences at the University of Calgary, May 6-7 and University of Alberta, Edmonton, May 13-14, to discuss the responsibilities and attitudes of youth in Canada's rapidly changing social structure.

Attending from the area are Elaine Jouan, Tomahawk, John Ohnysty, Wildwood and Dennis Martin of Lindale.

Guest speaker during the banquet, Friday, May 6th at the Calgary seminar will be Alberta's Minister of Education, Hon. R. H. MacKinnon - "Breaking the Sound Barrier" - with entertainment by the University of Alberta male choir and a dance with orchestra.

Guest speaker during the banquet, Friday, May 13, at the Edmonton seminar one week later will be Alberta's Minister of Highways, Hon. Gordon E. Taylor - "You and Canada's Second Century" - followed by an abridged version of My Fair Lady by well-known Calgary artists Yvonne Toynbee, Shirley Corrigall and Gary Dean, with a dance and orchestra to complete the evening.

Group leaders gathered in Edmonton recently.in preparation for the conferences and met with Premier Ernest C. Manning of Alberta who expressed appreciation on behalf of the government for the active interest and enthusiasm they were contributing towards the success of the seminars, a new venture for the province of Alberta, and the first of their kind by a provincial government in Canada.

The Alberta Seminars For Youth are designed to give public expression to the viewpoints and concerns of 400 young Albertans who are active in youth organizations throughout the province. Where almost half the population is under the age of 25 Alberta is truly the "Province of Youth'.

Centennial Success Depends on You

Several good ideas for the celebration of Canada's 100th birthday were introduced at the Centennial Workshop held in Drayton Valley last Thursday evening. Many fine, workable suggestions were discussed and if even a few were undertaken and exploited to their full extent the birthday party in this area would be an event fondly remembered for many years.

However, despite the urging of Federal and Provincial governments and the enthusiasm of the local Centennial Committee many of us are not taking nearly enough interest in this tremendous event. We should all bear in mind that the success of the Centennial will not be guaranteed by the amount of money advanced by governments -- it will be measured in every community by the degree of involvement by local citizens.

We in this area are already assured of three major events around which could be built any number of other attractions.

First we will undertake our major project, the construction of a Centennial Arena and Civic Centre. A project of this scope would normally satisfy a community of our size for many years -- but there's much, much more!

Secondly, we are very fortunate in being on the route of the Voyageur Canoe Pageant -- our community can in fact be the first stopping point for the brigade of canoes that will follow the water route from Rocky Mountain House to Montreal. This presents the possibility of a riverside festival that would dwarf all others.

And thirdly, the mammoth Centennial Caravan, which will arrive here the day following Canada's 100th birthday, July 2nd, 1967 -- will stay not one day, but three, and be open to the public on two of these. Again many avenues of celebration are open in connection with the stay of the caravan in the town.

The ingredients of a bang-up birthday party are right before us. Many people in the community, young and old alike, are already involved and now's the time for the rest of us to work up our enthusiasm and prepare to celebrate this great event.

The Centennial is not intended as a solemn review of our history. The country will celebrate its birthday with fun, fireworks and festivities.

CANADA'S CENTURY

A news background special on the Centennial of Confederation

From Britain And France Came Creation And Crisis

(First Of A Series)
By WALT McDAYTER

The birth of Canada as a nation was unique in that it was a child born with two umbilical cords. To this day the cords have not been severed, but still stretch taut across the Atlantic to our two motherlands, Britain and France.

Canada owes much to other countries as well, but it is these two who provided us with most of our population, and gave us our language, laws, institutions and culture.

Yet, if it is the French and English who did most to create Canada, it is also the growing friction between them that is now the biggest threat to our continued existence as a nation.

The split between French and English Canada has never been wider, and never has the cry in Quebec for separatism been louder. Many no longer speak of Canada as a nation, but as two-nations-in-one.

The two-nation principle dates back to 1774, and is in many ways a consequence of the American revolution. After defeating the French on the Plains of Abraham in 1759, the British later feared the French colonists might join the 13 English colonies threatening revolution to the south.

To ensure French-Canadian loyalty, the British were extra lenient to the French, guaranteeing them rights to their separate religion, language, custom and even French civil law by the Quebec Act of 1774.

The Constitutional Act of 1791 divided Canada not only geographically into Upper and Lower Canada, but into race and religion. In Lower Canada were the French Catholics, in Upper Canada were the English Protestants, primarily recently-arrived United Empire Loyalists.

There was an attempt in 1841 to re-unite these two groups into the single Province of Canada, but the line of separatism between English and French had been there too long, and could not then be erased.

In 1867, French-Canadians agreed to Confederation on condition that their French heritage would be preserved, and their separate identity protected. And so, even in union, the seeds of separatism were planted.

But despite the ever-present controversy over separatism, 100 years have passed and Canada will soon celebrate the centennial of Confederation.

Many didn't think we'd make it. The New York Tribune predicted in 1867, "When the experiment of the 'Dominion' shall have failed . . . as fail it must . . . a process of peaceful absorption will give Canada her proper place in the great North American Republic."

But Canada has not failed! It has survived as a nation, and there are few Canadians who wouldn't bet a beaver pelt that it will continue to do so.

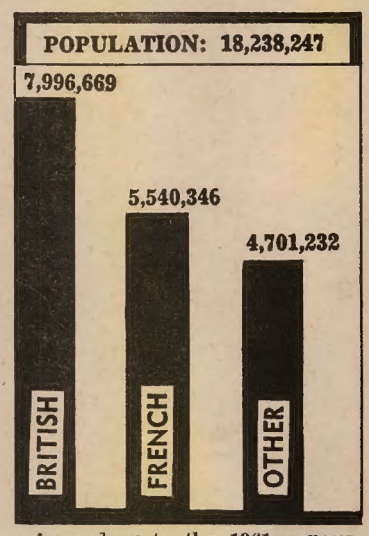
No single battle has affected Canada more than the battle on the Plains of Abraham, when in 1759 French and English forces clashed in a war to win a continent. Picture shows Wolfe leading the victorious British against Montcalm's gallant French troops.



According to the 1961 census, about 75 per cent. of Canada's population can be traced to either British or French descent.

When the unexpected happens, as it sometimes does, it's important to know what steps to take. That's why the competent advice of your Manufacturers Life representative is so valuable. Here are some of the practical points he'll cover.

1. Unless you originally named an alternative or contingent beneficiary, the money from your policy would be payable to your estate. This may tie up the money and subject it to creditors claims and unnecessary estate costs. In the end, it might not even go to the person you would have chosen unless your will is up to date.

2. If young children were also originally named as beneficiaries, and they are still under age, another problem arises. Unless you make special provision, the policy proceeds at your death would have to be paid into court and held until they reach their majority.

But don't wait until something like this happens. Call your Manufacturers Life representative to-day. He will review your beneficiary arrangements—and suggest changes if they are necessary. He is experienced in matters of this kind, and he offers you the kind of counsel you can rely on.

THOUGHTS ABOUT SOILS AND ROTATIONS

The grey wooded soil zone is a forest area composed of mixed deciduous and evergreen trees where sedge and muskeg bogs are common occurence. In this region the normal annual precipitation will vary from 20 to 22 inches. About a quarter of this annual moisture falls as snow and the rest as rain. Generally cooler average temperatures, lower evaporation and shorter growing seasons are experienced here than in many areas, for we are close to the mountains. The soils in this zone nave lost initial fertility, and a loose, easily eroded surface subject to crusting. The subsoil is tough and compact. Hence there is a definite need to do everything possible to hasten crop maturity.

Forage crops are essential to the productivity of Grey Wooded Soils. A number of legumes including red clover, alsike and sweet clovers and alfa may be grown alone or in combination with various grasses such as Brome, Timothy, Reed Canary Grass and some of the wheat grasses.

Nearly all parts of this region receive an abundance of rainfall throughout the growing season, therefore it does not seem too necessary to summerfallow except for the control of weeds that cannot be controlled economically by other means.

Three to four years of legume or legume - grass and two to three years of grain con constitues a good rotation for most of these soils. A short rotation of grain, under-seeded by a legume to be plowed under as a green manure, may be used to more quickly improve soil that has not previously been sown to legumes. After several rounds of such a short rotation, a longer and more permanent rotation could advantageously be established.

Now is a good time to plan and secure seed to establish a suitable rotation on your farm. Think in terms of grass and legumes to aid soil structure, increase fertility and fibre and provide feed for your livestock.

All this will do much with proper use of suitable fertilizers to expand your livestock and grain enterprises. If you wish more information on rotations for your farm, please feel free to enquire at the Agricultural Offices in Evansburg and Edson.

THOUGHTS ON FERTILIZER USE

The use of commercial fertilizers are steadily and rapidly on the increase. Many farmers are not too familiar with the different components of the different kinds. Many know by name, the four essential elements required by growing plants, that are frequently lacking in the soil.

Nitrogen: Gives plants their dark green color and produces rapid growth. It increases yields of leaf, fruit and seed and increases protein content of grain and forage crops. Crops lacking nitrogen have a sickly, yellowish green color and are stunted in growth.

Phosphorus: Stimulates early root formation and gives plants a vigorous and rapid start. It also stimulates blooming and seed formation and hastens maturity. A lack of phosphorus may be detected by purplish colored leaves and stems, slow growth, poor tillering or stooling and poor root development.

Potassium: Gives plants vigor and disease resistance. It increases strength of stem to help reduce lodging. This element is fairly prevalent in wide areas of the province. Any lack will be shown by testing.

Sulphur: This element has been found deficient in many areas of the grey wooded soil zone. Sulphur increases root growth and helps maintain dark green color. In legumes and clovers it promotes nodule formation, aids seed production and increases protein content. A lack of this element will cause light green color, short slender stalks and a stunted growth generally.

The purpose of the Alberta Soil Testing Service is to help farmers make soil management decisions by providing chemical soil tests and interpretations. Alberta soils vary greatly in their ability to supply plant nutrients and to support plant growth.

Reliable soil test recommendations depend upon farmers taking representative samples of their field soils and supplying accurate and complete information about their samples. Detailed instructions for taking soil samples, and soil sample kits may be had at the Agricultural Offices in Evansburg and Edson.

Precautions: 1. Do not allow livestock to lick spilled fertilizer of any kind, or chew empty bags. 2. Destroy all empty fertilizer containers.

Water Skiing
with CLINT WARD
COACH:CANADIAN NATIONAL TEAM

Whenever you find yourself approaching the dock or beach with too much forward speed, try this simple method of controlled deceleration.

Assume a sitting position, moving your weight backward on the skis. Place your hands firmly in the water, palms forward. The deeper the hands are forced into the water the more positive the deceleration.

If you are coming in to the dock or beach too slow, lean forward. This will move your weight to the front of the skis, stretching the glide.

Players Plan Klondike Project

Last Tuesday a meeting of the "Drayton Valley Players" was held in the Townhall to discuss a Klondike Days project and The Centennial.

It was decided that a donation of $50 would be made to the Centennial Fund, and also that the Centennial Committee be approached to see if it is feasible to find a home in the new arena to accommodate the performing arts.

Amongst other topics discussed, it was proposed that an annual general meeting be held within the first two weeks of September at which the executive of the club would prepare a tentative program for the forthcoming season. This was voted on and passed.

New members are welcome anytime and even if you feel you don't want to act there is always an urgent need for behind the scenes help. Interested persons please contact Barbara Eckert, president.

CHANGES IN CHURCH SERVICES

Holy Communion will be solemnized in All Saints Anglican Church at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, May 15th. Also the joint study group which has been studying the union document will be held at the Parish Hall at 8:15 p.m. Sunday evening.

Rutherford—Kelly Wedding Held Recently in Revelstoke

On April 22nd at 8:30 p.m. the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelly of Revelstoke was the scene of a very beautiful wedding, when Miss Judith Ella Rutherford, was united in marriage to Mr. Ronald Dennis Kelly, second son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Kelly.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an off-white suit, with corsage of red rose buds and a white veiled hat. Her only jewelery was a red stoned locket, a gift of the groom.

The candle light ceremony took place beneath an arch bedecked with red roses and white bells, with Rev. Gordon East, of the United Church, officiating.

Nelson Kelly, brother of the groom, was best man and Doreen Whitehouse, friend of the bride was matron of honour.

Jim Rutherford, brother of the bride, proposed a toast to the happy couple. The only guest present, other than the immediate families, was Miss Sharon Berarducci.

The evening saw 30 friends arrive for dancing, the gifts were opened and the wedding cake cut.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Kelly left for Quesnel, B.C. where they will make their home.

Tennis Club Organized

An organizational meeting for the formation of a local tennis club was held Tuesday evening.

Another meeting will be held Monday, May 16 and all interested are asked to contact Bruce Boles, Stu Lunan or Mike Gormley.

Tuesday's meeting investigated the possibility of a paved court.

Library Hours Extended

There has been such an increase in the number of children using the library that the library board decided to stay open at noon on Friday as well as Tuesday, for the school children who came on buses.

A few titles of interest for boys and girls are: "Flying Free", a true account of eagles; "The Volga-lifeline of Russia", the title is self explanatory, interesting Russian history; "Papercraft" and "Fun with Clay" for students to whom handicrafts have a special appeal. A thick book called "Riddles, riddles, riddles" in answer to many requests for it.

For adults there is: "The Doubleday Book of Interior Decorating", beautifully illustrated; "The Last Battle" the story of the fall of Berlin in the second world war, fascinating reading.

Five men lived for a month in 1963 in a shelter 36 feet below the surface of the Red Sea.

Sales Gimmicks Described At Lions Ladies' Night

On May 3rd the regular meeting of the Drayton Valley Lions Club was celebrated as a ladies night in the Cardium Room of the hotel. After a delicious meal the program chairman, Lion Bert Telford introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Bruce Brown of the Edmonton Better Business Bureau.

Mr. Brown outlined several of the gimmicks and tricks used by the so-called "hi-pressure" salesmen who come to our doors. He urged his audience not to fall for the "baits" such as: working my way through college; you have been selected to receive a "FREE SET"; You have won a sizeable credit on our appliance, etc.

The first thing to be asked of the salesman should be to see his Provincial and Municipal Licesne and also a personal identification and relation to his company. The name of the firm on his license should be the same as that of the product he is trying to sell.

Do not sign any contract or agreement before you have carefully read it over including the fine print, and if in doubt ask him to come back the next day so you will have time to have this agreement checked by someone with authority. A refusal on the part of the salesman in this matter will confirm your doubt about his honesty.

Mr. Brown gave as slogan for everybody concerned: BEFORE YOU INVEST....INVESTIGATE.

The Children's Playhouse, to be raffled by the Drayton Valley Lions Club is now placed in the downtown parking lot next to the Royal Bank. The local Lions are planning to have some of their members on hand at this location on Friday evenings and Saturday afternoons to sell tickets for this raffle. All the proceeds from this raffle will go to the further development of the Lions West Valley Park.

Good Attendance At Vatican Series

The "Vatican II and You" series continued last monday evening at St. Anthony's Auditorium, with a large crowd of all faiths present. Frank Dolphin Associate Editor of the Western Catholic Reporter spoke on the Vatican document - The Apostolate of the Laity.

In the question period many interesting points were brought up. One of the outstanding remarks was that when teenagers are faced with problems, they are unable to consult with their parents as they are out a good deal of time attending various social functions. It was felt that the parents are not spending nearly enough time with their children.

Next session will be held Monday, May 16. Featured speaker Thurston Smith. All are welcome.

MR. and MRS. HUNTER

St. Anthony's Church Setting for Ceremony

Tall white and pink gladioli in brass vases, graced the altar in St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church on Saturday, April 30th when Rev. Father Lynch united in marriage Vallee Marie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Urchyshyn and Robert Joseph, only son of Mrs. William Hunter of Calgary and the late Mr. Hunter.

Radiant in a traditional white, floor-length gown of peau de soie the bride entered the church on her father's arm. The dress featured an empire waistline, and elbow-length sleeves, white lace, fabric flowers and rhinestones accentuated the skirt's hem. A long train and large bow in the back completed the beautiful gown. Her bouffant shoulder length veil was nylon tulle, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red rose buds and ivy. She wore the groom's gift, a string of matched pearls.

Miss Lorena Lilje as maid of honour and bridesmaids, the Misses Marlene Ibbotson, Donna Mastre and Darleen Tucker wore identical floor length gowns of white crystal charm with pertly pleated pink organza hats, pink and white accessories. They carried bouquets of pink and wyite carnations.

The best man was Mr. Ted McKinnon. Other attendants of the groom were: Messieurs Bob Horvath, Dale Scherer and Joseph De Paoli. Mrs. Rene Trudel was organist and Mrs. Wilfred Sleno sang "Ave Marie" and "A Wedding Prayer" during the ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Urchyshyn chose a smartly styled two-piece ensemble in blue lace comlimented with white accessories and white carnations en corsage.

The groom's mother was gowned in an ice white silk metallic sheath with matching accessories and chose a white and pink carnation corsage.

Mr. Kenneth MacKenzie acted as master of ceremonies at the reception. Father Lynch asked the blessing and Mr. Fred Urchyshyn proposed the toast to the bride. The groom responded most ably. In his remarks he thanked Mr. and Mrs. Urchyshyn and the ladies of the Anglican W.A. and expressed the hope that all the guests would enjoy the occasion. Mr. Ted McKinnon proposed the toast to the bride's attendants.

The bride's table was centred by a four-tiered wedding cake flanked by bouquets of carnations and chrysanthemums in tall crystal vases. Following dinner the guests enjoyed an evening of dancing.

For a honeymoon trip to California and Nevada the bride changed to a white brocade dress and matching coat with red accessories and corsage of small red roses. On their return the Hunters will live in Calgary.

Out of town guests were from Edmonton, Calgary, Creston, B.C., St. Albert, Bruderhem, Chisholm, Wildwood, Entwistle, London, England, Red Deer, Evansburg, Edson, Camrose and Lacombe.

Oil Wives Elect New Officers

The May meeting of the Drayton Valley Oil Wives was held on Monday, May 9th in the Cardium Room. Seventy five ladies, including five guests, sat down to a delicious dinner of Chinese food.

During the business meeting each member of the executive gave her monthly report, followed by the year-end report for her office. There will be no June meeting and no announcements will be sent out. Instead our June get-together will take the form of a Barbeque and Dance on Saturday, June 11th. All tickets are sold, but any member wishing to attend can add their name to the saiting list by phoning Jackie Tommins.

It was moved and carried that a sewing bee will be set up to sew the Tote Bags which will be taken by our delegates to convention in the fall as momentos from Drayton Valley for all attending delegates.

Spoons were presented to three ladies who are moving from Drayton Valley and thus leaving our club: Joyce Dziwenka; Cam McCracken and Marie Slator.

Acting Program Chairman, Edna Henderson, thanked our very capable auctioneer for the April meeting, Phil Pajak.

A copy of the Creed, Blessing and Club Song, as adopted by the Association was made available for each member to read. The Edmonton Oil Wives have invited the members of our club to attend their next meeting on May 12th at the Derrick Club. New business included nominations from the floor to run for positions on the executive.

Following the intermission Publicity Chairman, Eunice Lyle, gave a brief background account of each lady running for a position on the new executive. Voting then took place and the new 1966-67 executive was elected as follows: President, Jackie Timmins; First Vice-President, Dot Booker; Second Vice-President, Jean Ward; Secretary, Pauline Rehbien; Treasurer, Dorothy Pollock; Membership, Fay Shearer; Reservations, Gladys Schultz; Program, Dorothy Goss; Constitution, Edna Henderson; Publicity, Joan Reynolds; Historian, Stella Murray.

During the counting of the ballots, a representative of Holiday Magic Cosmetics and two cosmeticians gave a talk and demonstration on the correct way of applying makeup.

A beautiful arrangement of flowers was won by Lillian Ross and a gift of cosmetics was won by Donna Desjardins.

Charolais Cattle Coming West

The first French cattle to come to Canada in this century were released last week from the Grosse Ile quarantine station, the Canada Department of Agriculture announced.

The cattle, all of the Charolais beef breed, were taken by boat to Quebec City, about 40 miles up the St. Lawrence River from the island. They were displayed at the city's Exhibition Grounds by the Canadian Charolais Association and shipped to their new homes in Canada.

The Charolais, imported by Canadian cattlemen last fall, will go to farms in six provinces. Four of them will go to British Columbia, 48 to Alberta, 27 to Saskatchewan, six to Manitoba, 13 to Ontario and 11 to Quebec.

THE ARNOLD Palmer Method
by GOLF'S 4-TIME MASTERS WINNER

FINISH HIGH FOR SOLID SHOTS

Finishing the swing with your hands high as I am doing in No. 1 will not, in itself, assure a good shot. However, planning to finish high will help you to move your right shoulder down and under properly (No. 2) and this shoulder move does help provide a solid blow.

When the right shoulder moves down and under, the clubhead will move into the ball from inside to along the target line (No. 3). This gives you full power for the shot and minimizes slicing or pulling, which will occur when the clubhead comes into the ball from outside the line.

Valleyview United Church Setting for Recent Ceremony

Valleyview United Church was the scene of a lovely double-ring ceremony when Juanita "Colleen", younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Clark became the bride of James Alex, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Chapchuk of Alder Flats. The ceremony was held Saturday, April 30th, 1966 at 1:30 p.m. with Rev. Howard Munro officiating. Miss Linda Turner of DeBolt sang "True Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a full-length gown of white nylon over taffeta in the A-line style. The dress featured a high waist-line, lily-pointed sleeves and was trimmed with tiny seed pearls. Her full-length train, which fell from the shoulders, was trimmed with small bows and chantilly lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Mrs. Sandra Anderson of Valleyview, only sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Pearl Kramps and Miss Janet Hillerud both of Grande Prairie. The three attendants wore matching floor-length gowns of pink and silver satin brocade, styled with scooped neckline and sleeveless tops. They carried cascade bouquets of white daisy mums and rose ribbon.

Mr. Ben Chapchuk of Alder Flats, brother of the groom, was best man and groomsmen were Carl Pettersen of Valleyview and Bob Chapchuk of Alder Flats. Ushers for the occasion were Jim McLaughlin of Edmonton and Dale Clemmer of Alder Flats.

The bride's mother wore a matching sheath and coat of lace over turquoise taffeta with white accessories and pale pink carnations en corsage.

The Mother of the groom chose a three-piece suit of beige linen with dark rose accessories and magenta roses en corsage.

A reception of ninety guests was held in the Ridgevalley Auditorium at Crooked Creek at 5:30 p.m. Mr. Leslie Anderson, brother-in-law of the bride, was master of ceremonies. Mr. Carl Petterson, close friend of the bride and groom, gave the toast to the bride.

An open house and dance followed at the Crooked Creek Community Hall.

For her wedding trip to Vancouver, the bride chose a pale green linen sheath with matching three-quarter length coat.

Out-of-town guests were from Bergen, Didsbury, Alder Flats, Wetaskiwin, Red Deer, Fort Saskatchewan, Sibbald, DeBolt, Grande Prairie in Alberta and North Surrey and Vancouver in B.C.

Nobody's opinions are worthless. Even a stopped clock is right twice a day.

Tag Day Workers

Crop Report

In its first crop report of the new growing season the Alberta Pacific Grain Company, summarizing the week ending May 4th, states that heavy wet snow covered the Southern half of Alberta early last week providing good moisture supplies but stopping all farm work. The Northern half of the province received only light snow, but continued cold weather has delayed the start of cultivation and seeding.

Moisture conditions are good in the South; fair to good in the North; and good in the Peace River District. Warm, dry weather is needed in all parts of the province to allow farm work to become general.

Children who receive gifts of chemistry sets should not be allowed to use these indiscriminately. Many accidents have occurred in which youngsters have been injured or maimed when experimenting without supervision. Consultation with school or knowledgeable adults could prevent accidents.
